ONELEMENT

ABOUT US

Onelement is a Dubai-based Italian finishing contractor dedicated to surfaces, furniture and interior design.

Founded by Alessandro Ortenzi in 2006 in the Italian medieval town of Todi, Onelement expresses Italian finest quality, attention to details and innovative professional services for architects, interior designers and real estate developers.

Onelement is a modern and international firm that offers turn-key solutions and a complete catalogue of surfaces made in Italy. The staff is driven by a tailor-made approach to customers: bespoke solutions, custom-made surfaces and finishings.

PROJECTS AND MARKETS

Onelement offers design services, which allow clients to make professionally – guided, informed decisions, regarding a wide array of design options and products.

This early and sustained collaboration with clients and their architects and close cooperation with design staff of builders and real estate developers of luxury properties – allows Onelement to deliver fully integrated residential and commercial interiors of highest quality, on-budget and on-time.

Onelement has already developed projects in Europe (Italy, United Kingdom, Norway, Switzerland, France, Monaco, Latvia, Russia), Asia (China, India) and Middle East (Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Dubai, Abu Dhabi).

PRODUCTION

Onelement offers a new approach to marble, stone, wood and terracotta processing having developed an effective combination in-house of consultancy, cutting-edge technology and project management.

Thanks to a strong experience in complementary fields, for example, joinery, metal works and upholstery, Onelement can offer complex turn-key solutions for bespoke flooring, covering, built-in furniture and accessories successfully combining different materials.

Processing takes place in Italy to guarantee the highest quality Technical design, high-precision equipment, finishing by hand and permanent control of the quality: that's how we create our surfaces.

Like a tailor-made suit, bespoke surfaces made by Onelement fit perfectly the space to decorate thanks to smart designing and careful manufacturing that keeps an eye on the installation methods that best suit each purpose.

Atelier Contract Division

Onelement's Atelier Contract division is able to offer quality and specific professional skills for a vast range of materials and finishes to transform each design concept into customised solutions that comply with the specifications, completion times and highest quality standards. Thanks to its close collaboration with the most exclusive names in Italian and international design, the Atelier Contract division also supervises all-round, turnkey supplies and acts as sole manager for the development of the project
